Artwork Installation competition

▪ Concept

“Showcase your Institute Ideology”

The focus of competition is to discover knowledge of student, excavation into Ideology of design and architecture Institute, and execution on site.

The aim is to unleash talent of students along with expertise of faculties and Explore where they might have more potential. While many students are probably working wonders in their own Institutes, there may be potential for some of them to be more recognized at national platform rather than in their own Institute.

We act as a hub for discovering such talent and directing them to where they might have more potential.

EnCODE invites entries by the Design and Architecture Institutes from around the country to showcase their student's talent in front of several design and Architecture aspirants, and invite art experts to serve on the jury from all over the country.

With a jury from various fields in the art world, we aim to discover Architecture and Design institutes who can be recognized on national platform.
